Bob Menendez asked Trump to work on USMCA more before it's too late, says source By Richard Escobar, The Washington Post December 4, 2018 A top Democratic senator said Tuesday that the president is so determined to clinch his signature trade pact with Mexico and Canada that he is telling others that he will not let it fail. ADVERTISEMENT Sens. Bob Menendez of New Jersey and Ron Wyden of Oregon, the ranking Democrats on the Senate Finance and Senate Finance Committees, respectively, told The Washington Post that Trump has personally asked them to work on revising the U.S.-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA), the new North American Free Trade Agreement. "It's up to him," Menendez said.
