What's new in Assignment 42:

ON THE BOUNCE! PART 1 ((See the "Nemo on the Bounce!" - Part 1 on this page for a previous version of this comic, now with Nanog I'll be making a fan comic about Nana's quest for mischief. As well as other hilarious news from the villains having a fitting sense of humor)) Doing a comic with so many characters for the first time can seem daunting, but practice makes perfect, so here goes! Monday - Wednesday - Friday Skywalker_of_Dojos Nemo on the Bounce (Nano, Lucas why are you over here?) AAAAAAAAAAAA.....AGH!! (Just kidding we still love you Lucas Nano be careful) Nomo falls to the floor igniting a flame (Hmm? Ok, cool you stay down, I'll go check on him) ((Wait for you're to the point with the flames, I got a special trick)) As Nanog leapt onto a nearby table she slipped and stuck one of her gold bangles onto a vacuum and connected it. (I wuv shooting uooooops) Nano The Bangles already fired repeatedly sending blasts of air at the ground and the clothing on a few of the characters passing by. (Nano, you forgot to say you love me!-) Nanog sobbed and took up one of the confetti rings and put it in between her teeth and bit down on it hard pulling it from behind her teeth. (Woosh all my tears now!-) The cloth got caught in her jaw and in the snapping of teeth broke leaving a huge bloody mess in her mouth. (Okay Noma, time for a new trick) Suddenly a horrified face appeared on the giant screen above the table. ((Hair! Oops! I meant helmet!)) ((Now is the appropriate time)) Nanog stood erect with her hands at her side. (Nana! Nana! What do I do Nana!) The camera above Nanog focused on her limbs. Nanog ((Nana! SAVE! MIKO!) Then she felt a pair of hands envelop her and the camera closed around it. ((Help yourself, I'll look for my outfit))

Polymerase chain reaction: an efficient and rapid method for the isolation of Rhizobium meliloti DNA from soil. A rapid and efficient method is described for the extraction of bacterial DNA from soil. Rhizobium meliloti cells are lysed by the addition of saponin and deoxyribonuclease before an overnight incubation in SSC (0.1% sodium citrate). The resulting material is subjected to phenol extraction and precipitation. The resulting pellet is dissolved in SDS and invertase enzyme, and an additional overnight incubation period is carried out. Bacteria are then sedimented by centrifugation and the supernatant is re-extracted in phenol. The DNA is precipitated and washed with ethanol, air-dried, and suspended in distilled water. The validity of the method is tested against standard reagents of known DNA concentration. The isolated DNA is analysed by agarose gel electrophoresis, and by hybridization with an EcoRI-R. meliloti DNA fragment.ore&
