Power Shot – improve the power and efficiency of your shots. FIFA 22 introduces "HyperMotion Technology," which uses motion capture data collected from real-life players playing a complete, high-intensity football match in motion capture suits. The data collected from player movements, tackles, aerial duels and on-ball actions is used to power FIFA 22 gameplay. The main gameplay enhancements made with the power of the new HyperMotion Technology include: There is more on offer in the latest FIFA game than simply power. As well as the aforementioned HyperMotion capabilities, FIFA 22's passing and dribbling mechanics have been revised. According to the developers, their biggest change in regards to the passing and dribbling mechanics comes from their player-centered approach. "Every player has his own specific play style, which is very important for every single player, especially in this kind of game." Players, the game developers maintain, are much more involved in the decision-making process in FIFA 22, thanks to the better feedback given by the new motion capture technology. "You are going to feel more connected with the action and more involved in the decision-making process," they enthuse. So, exactly how will player-specific playstyles work? Well, the game developers say that they have introduced new algorithms to FIFA 22, allowing players to adapt to each other during a match. One player's poor accuracy in a specific situation will encourage a good passer to pass to their flank or a better dribbler to take a better run-up. They may even instruct a player to dribble with their opposite foot. The improvement in the decision-making process ensures that the game will become more tactical, and Take your favorite players from the current FIFA lineup and bring them into your Ultimate Team to make the perfect team. Power-ups and success boosts help to gain extra strength and speed in both player and team performance, and your combination of players in FUT will unlock even more players to collect. FIFA Euro 2016 – The UEFA European Championship presented by Cookin’ Stuff is a new way for you to experience the thrill of the competition in the most anticipated football championships in recent years. Fittingly, it is the most ambitious, detailed and authentic of all FIFA competitions and also, for the first time ever, includes a UEFA Pro License mode. INTANGIBLES Reflect a new, more immersive style of play that rewards players who are passionate and committed to their club. Experience tension-filled moments that build tension and anticipation as players come together for the first time, while the managers and players are faced with new and unexpected challenges. More Skill Moves – Take a new look at the FUT Manager to see three new Skill Moves: Push/Shove, Slide and Score. New Training System – With more time to master skills and tactics, you will have more control over the development of your players through a series of new workout options. Players’ training progress and physical conditioning are now more closely aligned than ever. Players can now take daily and nightly breaks, as well as get up and down from the bench, to keep them fresh for the games ahead. New Interactive Training Fields – Train on unique training fields, using the action you create off the pitch with a series of new interactive exercises in your training session. You can even complete laps around your training field, track the real-time progress of players using your virtual field, or show your face and mood on the field, alongside your players. Tactical Depth – Take full control over your team’s structure, line-up and tactics, with the complete introduction of a new formation system. On the pitch, you can give your players full freedom of movement and implement all variations on the ball that you want, using your new manager’s tactics. Switch formation after formation to create a variety of game-changing tactics. The 2012 UEFA Champions League is a new, more immersive way to enjoy the season’s biggest and most prestigious competition. For the first time ever, the 2012 UEFA Champions League will be broadcasted in full HD and feature improved graphics. The teams’ kits will
