Savage Model 99F - Realtime Rifle Scope Unluckily for me, I have no nics. Assuming the genium you are using in your rig has 2 nics, let's call them nic 1 and nic 2. Assume that nic 1 has been assigned for the vlan or that it is being used for bgp only (It probably is.). If you assign nic 2 to the vlan or it is being used for something else, it will be 100g so you will lose a good amount of speed. Assign nic 2 for just bgp purposes. Then the vlan should have no problems. Notice that I got rid of the trunk interface. There is no need for a trunk interface under vlan. ip -s link add dev eth1 link eth0 type vlan id 87100 ip -s link set dev eth1 up ip -s link set dev eth0 down ip -s link set dev eth1 master br0 ip -s link set dev br0 up ip -s link show dev eth1 ip -s link show dev eth0 R1# show run ip 192.168.10.2 Building configuration... He called for a "second revolution." The warning came at a time when most Americans viewed the Soviet Union as a brutal totalitarian state and there were few — if any — known dissidents left on America's shores. California's radicalized Attorney General was speaking to a group of University of California Regents about a communist takeover that, he claimed, already was in progress. "The basic circumstances of a second revolution are the same as were present in the first, only even more so," he said, according to transcripts of his prepared remarks. "The differences are chiefly in the methods adopted by the new Bolshevik regime." His comments were reported in the San Francisco Chronicle. But a search of the newspaper's Archives and microfilm archives didn't turn up any news stories about an Attorney General's radicalized warnings. For decades, the newspaper did not print the names of people who had been blacklisted by the Office of Alien Property Custodian. But the Chronicle was not alone in protecting the privacy of the people named during the anti-Communist hysteria of the 1940s. As The Times has reported, thousands of Americans were blacklisted from certain careers, denied a passport or arrested on suspicion of being "subversive." But the fear of a second revolution was used by some opponents of Joseph McCarthy, the Wisconsin senator who gained prominence in the 1950s as a foe of the Communist menace. The attorney general even said that he had evidence that communists had tried to influence the presidential election in
