Apocalypse MotorStorm is the name of a PS3 game that is now old to the point of being boring. Perhaps what they really want to do is stop the game from me playing it by supplying a d-hack; if so, here is the reddit page. If you liked this, put in some good reviews. Make sure you put in a good number of reviews. If you have used the paypal or Google wallet services or the credit/debit card you used to donate you can put in the transaction number your PayPal, Google wallet or credit/debit card. This will save me some work when I need to tally up the donations. If you have yet to donate, you can still do so even with out a transaction number. When you are at the paypal site click the donate button, login with your account and add as you normally would, choose a payment option. You have until the end of the month to pay before the funds run out. Any donations sent after the end of the month will be held until the end of the fundraising period. As soon as we can sort out a donor area this will be updated on the main page. Donating via PayPal, Google Wallet or Credit/Debit Card are automated and will be the standard method of payment. Once the funds have been received they are added to the donation total and the total is posted on the main donation page. I will be having trouble summarizing all of this. I like to give the readers a clear idea of what the game is in so they can make an educated decision on if they want to buy the game for themselves. This being said, the details are in the link provided. Click on the link and you will be taken to a page to download the file. With the Windows Phone Store, most if not all of the games are either free, or you can download and play as many as you want for free after having a trial period. Some games are available to download for a limited period of time then they are gone; this is a good thing as you can't give the game a bad review and people are not tricked into thinking it will cost them money when it really won't. Some games make this mistake, thinking that they can download them and run them to their heart's content and then delete them if they don't like the game. I am not sure if this method works or not but have seen
