In Theaters: April 7, 2017 Directed by: Radha Mohan Starring: Dileep, Vineeth, Shiva Raajan, Shruti Marandavalli Release Date: 14 March, 2017 Runtime: 122 minutes Genre: Drama, Romance Director: Radha Mohan Review: After the cult success of the Malayalam film 2.30 pm, Producer K.S.Sivaramkrishna is back with The Art of Revenge, an Indian Tamil film, once again reuniting with his leading lady Vineeth. The film also stars Vineeth, newcomer Fathima Babu, Shiva Raajan, Sai Gopal, Deni Kingijo, Nalini and Sathish. It is a revenge drama that deals with many intricacies of love and hate, vengeance and forgiveness, and the journey of a woman who is emotionally, mentally and spiritually lost.. Kodhalan, by the same writer/director, was a hit, and Vudhiya Villain was one of the few recent hits in Indian cinema. Much like 2.30 pm, this film has Vineeth sharing screen space with a guy with a very long name (also a newcomer), Fathima Babu. Vineeth looks very natural as the macho father figure, as he plays a man who pretends to be this and that for no real reason, but understands deeply the psyche of a woman and how she is trapped. The young woman trying to leave her twisted life and start over is a woman who starts off as a secretary, then works in Pankaj Kumar's office as his secretary for a few days, and is then invited to his house to do secretarial work for Pankaj's wife. She is also the daughter of a corrupt politician. Soon she realises that she cannot live a life like that, and wants to run away, just like what her mother did in the opening scene.
